

1. MELCOM International acknowledges the invaluable assistance given by the Institut Supérieur de Documentation in Tunis and Centre Culturel at Hammamet in organizing its ninth annual conference.
2. The delegates welcomed the opportunity of holding its conference in the Arab world for the first time in a spirit of friendship and co-operation. They learned of the many library and bibliographical projects being undertaken in Tunisia and elsewhere and were able to discuss matters of mutual importance with their Tunisian colleagues.
3. The Tunisian delegates welcomed the opportunity of participating in the conference in an official capacity and of publicising their many activities to a European audience.

The Conference recommends:

- a) The holding of further international conferences
- b) The fraternal participation of the Arab Federation of Libraries and Information in future meetings.
- c) The establishment of a permanent administrative Council for MELCOM International, consisting of a President, Secretary and members from participating countries.
- d) The undertaking of European bibliographical projects under the aegis of MELCOM International.
- f) The publication of the papers presented at the Ninth conference by the ISD.
