Excursion to Timgad

The destination of the optional excursion is the ancient Roman town of Timgad.

Timgad (called Thamugas or Thamugadi in old Berber) was a Roman colonial town in the Aurès Mountains of Algeria, founded by the Emperor Trajan around AD 100. Located in modern-day Algeria, about 35 km east of the town of Batna, the ruins are noteworthy for representing one of the best extant examples of the grid plan as used in Roman city planning. Timgad was inscribed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1982.

The excursion's fares (transport, guide/visit fares and lunch) are graciously offered by our hosts. This does not include of course personal expenses, extra beverages and tips.

Indicative schedule (to be confirmed):

- 7:30 Participants are picked up from their hotels
(see the contact list below in case of emergency).
- 8:30 Departure for Timgad (travel by coach)
- 10:30 Arrival at Timgad
- 10:30-13:00 Visit of Timgad.
- 13:00-15:00 Lunch
- 15:00-17:00 Journey back to Constantine
- 17:00-19:00 Visit of the most outstanding bridges in Constantine
- 19:00 Estimated arrival time at participants' respective hotels in Constantine
